

RISK STRATEGIES COMPANY NAMES JOSEPH QUARANTELO JR. SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT

Industry Veteran to Serve as Firms' Large Casualty Resource and Environmental Risk and Insurance Expert

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 28, 2012 – Risk Strategies Company (RSC), a national insurance brokerage and risk management firm headquartered in Boston, announced today that Joseph Quarantello Jr. has joined the Boston office as a Senior Vice President. In his new role at RSC, Quarantello will act as a large casualty resource, produce, and will serve as the firm's expert in environmental risk and insurance.

Previously, Quarantello was the Northeast Practice Leader in the Global Environmental Practice at Marsh and McLennan's Boston office. Prior to joining Marsh and McLennan, Quarantello worked for AON in Boston as both an account manager and client executive, and handled environment insurance locally. Quarantello brings more than 30 years' experience to RSC and its clients.

"Joe has been a recognized and respected leader in environmental insurance in the New England region for many years, and we are excited that he is bringing his depth of knowledge and experience to his new role at Risk Strategies," said Michael Christian, Chief Executive Officer of RSC. "

RSC has grown organically and through acquisition. In the past two years, the company has acquired Millbrae, Calif.-based UPA Insurance Brokers, Needham, Mass.-based Global Insurance Network, Inc., and Cohn-Reid-O'Neill Insurance Services, Inc. (CRO) in San Mateo, Calif.

"Risk Strategies is an innovative firm with a strong reputation and a diverse, growing client portfolio," said Quarantello. "I look forward to leveraging my expertise in environmental risk and other areas of insurance to help position the firm for continued growth."

Quarantello resides in Revere, Mass., where he is an active member of the community. He recently joined the city's license board and officiates track meets at local high schools in the area.
