

RISK STRATEGIES' SPENCER MACALASTER NAMED TO ACG BOSTON'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 1, 2012 – Risk Strategies Company (RSC), a national insurance brokerage and risk management firm headquartered in Boston, announced today that Executive Vice President Spencer Macalaster has joined the board of directors of ACG Boston, the Boston Chapter of the Association for Corporate Growth (ACG). The ACG focuses on corporate growth, corporate development and mergers and acquisitions. The Boston chapter helps the local community of M&A dealmakers form strong relationships that can lead to deal flow over time.

Macalaster, who has been with Risk Strategies since 2006, is responsible for account management and new business development. He has been an active member of the ACG Boston chapter for five years, heavily involved in the organization's sponsorship activity.

"I am pleased to have been named to the board of the Boston chapter of ACG to help further support corporate growth in our community," said Macalaster. "I look forward to working with ACG's incoming president and board to continue to expand sponsorship and membership involvement in ACG."

With nearly 800 members, ACG Boston holds more than 25 networking and educational events per year, including dealmaker's breakfasts, middle market forums, corporate development forums, women's events, networking nights, emerging professionals networking events, an annual M&A conference in June, an annual private equity and M&A outlook conference in February, and an annual M&A sector specific conference in November.
