

EDUCATION PRACTICE

Each educational institution has unique, complex risks. Risk Strategies draws on decades of industry experience to understand the different coverage options needed to insure every part of a university, from the laboratories, dormitories, health centers, and information technology to intercollegiate athletics and employee benefits. Our specialty team will work with you closely to prepare for new and emerging risks and provide the support and protection you need while balancing benefits and affordability. ## INDUSTRY INSIGHT

Colleges and universities are coping with a constantly evolving field as they aim to protect their students, faculty, staff, and property. Understanding the specific market niches and knowing what questions to ask is critical to safety and loss control. We recognize that many changes currently impact educational institutions, including:

- Decreased enrollment
- Settlement and defense costs from lawsuits
- Growing cybersecurity threats
- Student mental health concerns
- Premium/deductible increases and shrinking limits
