

Freight Forwarding & Brokering Insurance

Securing the Shipment Journey

Whether you're coordinating logistics between shippers and carriers or managing the physical handling of goods across complex supply chains, your goal remains the same: ensuring shipments arrive safely and on time.

Trusted Experts in Freight Insurance

You know freight brokerage and forwarding is a complex business. So does the Risk Strategies Transportation team. Combining deep underwriting expertise with access to leading markets, we specialize in crafting tailored insurance solutions for freight intermediaries that precisely match your operation's unique challenges to protect both you and your shipping customers.

Informed by an in-depth review of your organization, its operations, customer relationships, and existing insurance program, we identify coverage gaps, assess areas of risk, and then present clear, strategic alternatives to enhance your protection and align with your overall business goals.

We build tailored insurance solutions that go beyond standard insurance policies to protect against cargo claims, E&O, contingent auto, broker liability, and more, so you can stay focused on moving freight, not managing risk.

Coverages Offered

Risk Strategies Transportation has the comprehensive insurance capabilities and industry expertise needed to address the unique exposures freight brokers and forwarders face. Ways we can help safeguard your operations, assets, and reputation include:

- Contingent Auto Liability
- Truck Broker Liability or Broker Liability
- Contingent Cargo Liability
- Shipper's Interest Cargo
- Professional Liability (general liability, workers' compensation, management liability, cyber, surety)
