

Specialized Insurance

for Every Mile, Mode, and Mission

Risk Strategies specialize in protecting the businesses that keep goods and people moving. Whether you're navigating urban streets, cross-country routes, or complex intermodal networks, our transportation specialists deliver customized insurance solutions tailored to your operations, its risks, and your goals.

Who We Serve

- Last Mile Delivery: Covering the crucial last step in the delivery chain where speed, reliability, and customer experience matter most.
- Trucking: Protection for regional and long-haul carriers, including liability, cargo, physical damage, and fleet coverage.
- Intermodal Transportation: Comprehensive solutions for businesses operating across rail and truck, helping you manage the complexities of multimodal logistics.
- Livery: Tailored policies for passenger transport services such as taxis, limousines, black cars, and ride-share fleets.
- Freight Brokering & Forwarding: Coverage for logistical professionals managing the movement of freight without operating the vehicles themselves.

Why Risk Strategies?

When facing critical business decisions, success starts with the right partner. At Risk Strategies, we see risk through your lens. Across 30+ specialty practices, our experts combine deep industry knowledge with a business-first mindset to bring you the clarity and strategy needed to move forward with confidence.

We're more than an insurance broker – we're a transportation risk partner. While there are thousands of insurance brokers in the market, only a select few truly specialize in last mile, trucking, intermodal, livery, and freight brokering & forwarding. Our resources are built around your unique needs.

With Risk Strategies, you get:

- A dedicated staff and claims team built to handle the fast-paced, high-stakes world of transportation
- Access to exclusive insurance programs and coverage that no other agent in the country can offer
- Relationships with a roster of A-rated carriers and trusted vendors from DOT compliance consultants to attorneys
- Big agency capabilities with a small agency service experience that is personal and responsive
