FOCUS ON HIGH-NET-WORTH INSURANCE

Sep 26, 2018

The Rough Notes Company, Inc.

Many individuals don't recognize their need for specialized coverage. They pay upwards of $250,000 annually for personal insurance. And according to Statista research, there were 4.78 million of them in 2015. These are today's high-net-worth and ultra-high-net-worth individuals. These are also the individuals who make up a burgeoning insurance market in the United States.
